

Setting the Scene

Choose an important setting from one of the books you've read for the path you selected and create an artwork that depicts this place! You can draw it or make a collage (by hand or digitally). Use your creativity to capture the atmosphere and details of the place as you imagine it from the book!

