February Event Spotlight

History of the Blues 101

Discover the history of blues music in America from its origins in the African American tradition of the deep south to the present. The roots of rock and roll, jazz and even hip hop can be traced to this important form. "Ramblin' Dan" Stevens will also perform using his homemade, three stringed "Cigar Box Guitar" and one stringed "Diddley Bow", both primitive instruments used by early bluesmen and played with a "bottleneck" slide.

Presenter "Ramblin" Dan Stevens is a veteran touring bluesman and teacher who has entertained audiences throughout the US, Germany, UK, Canada and Virgin Islands. As a finalist in the International Blues Challenge on Beale St. in Memphis TN and protege of the legendary folk/blues icon, Dave Van Ronk, Dan has been lauded for his ability as a raconteur and for the authenticity of his approach gained by many years on the road as a traveling blues musician.

Dave is a Digital Media Lab Per Diem Librarian and has worked at Meriden Public Library since October of 2025.

If he couldn't work in a library, he would work as a musician in an Antarctica research station performing music to keep the scientists from getting bored.

His favorite food is Chile Relleno!!

If he could meet one famous person, it would be John Coltrane.

He possessed such a powerful combination of expressivity, avant-garde conception, and virtuosic instrumental ability, that it would be wonderful to briefly speak.

A fun fact is that Dave wrote a lot of music about the Greenland Shark. If he could travel anywhere in the world, it would be Auyuittuq National Park in Baffin Island.

His favorite author is Ursula K. Le Guin (with a special love for both The Dispossessed and The Left Hand of Darkness).
